

Case Manager and Social Worker Open House & Community Resource Fair

Friday, October 5, 2018 from 10 am to 2 pm at 20 Export Drive, Sterling, VA

FREE EVENT - Women Giving Back's Case Manager & Social Worker Open House and Community Resource Fair will connect you to those working on front lines in community to combat poverty, homelessness and help families move to self-sufficiency across the region.

If you are attending please RSVP: nicole@womengivingback.org

-  Raffle for great prizes
-  Complimentary lunch provided
-  Networking and pampering with free makeovers and stylist
-  Special guest speakers on Youth Gang Prevention and Compassion Fatigue
-  Special Guest speakers on the Human Trafficking Crisis and Social Worker Self-Care
-  Tour of the WGB Store and learn more about our program and upcoming events

Guest Speakers

John M. Hetey, M.Ed. is the Probation Supervisor and Loudoun County Gang Response and Intervention Team Coordinator (GRIT). He works closely with the Northern Virginia Regional Gang Task Force and the Human Trafficking Task Force and is the chairman of his local GRIT Team.

Heather Peck Dzewulski, LCSW, DCSW, BCD & Hope Stonerook, BSW, MBA are co-founders of The Resilience Network, a group of veteran licensed professionals with over 60 years in both private and public organizations. Helping professionals such as social workers, first responders, mental health therapists, medical personnel, lawyers, and teachers who are affected by compassion fatigue find balance work life with home life.

Confirmed Exhibitors

- Cornerstones
- BritePaths - Financial Empowerment Center
- Loudoun County's Workforce Resource Center, WIOA & VIEW Programs
- Northern Virginia for Alcoholics Anonymous
- Just A Diva Encouraging Ministries
- HealthWorks for Northern Virginia
- Northern Virginia Human Trafficking Initiative
- NAMI Northern Virginia
- Inmed Partnerships for Children
- Northern Virginia Family Services - Training Futures
- CrossRoad Jobs
- Greater DC Diaper Bank

