

Children In Crisis

THE FOUNDATION OF EVERYTHING WE DO IS THAT every woman and child deserves the basics in life.

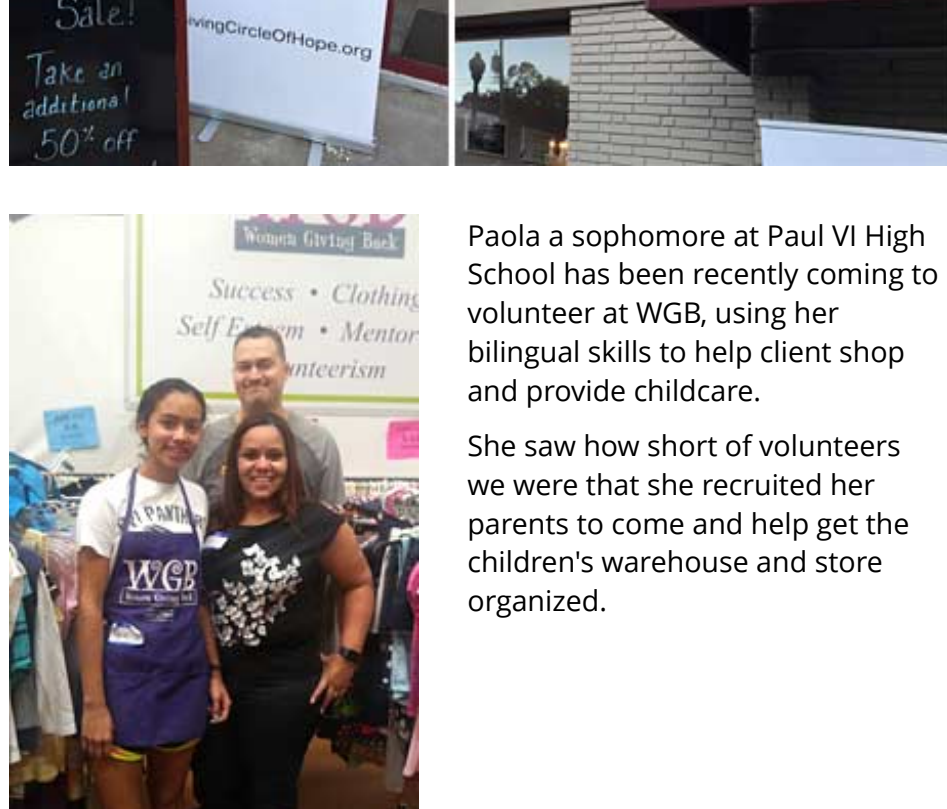

Store News

June Store

WGB provided transportation to Friends of Guest House clients from two homes in Alexandria. Great group of ladies that were so grateful to come and shop at the Saturday Store.

NCL Orchard was our children's breakfast sponsor at the June store. They also set up a craft station upstairs for the older kids.

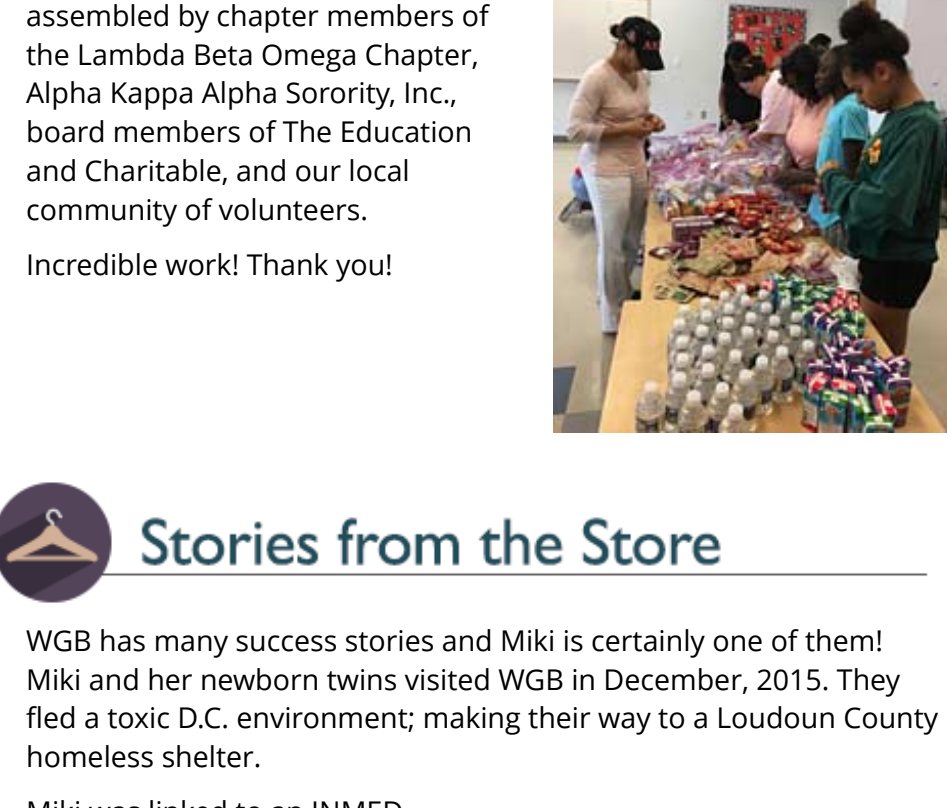

Cindy Dwyer attended the Giving Circle of Hope Member's Mingle at Wardrobe Rescue last Thursday along with Diane DuBois. They collected a $100 check.

Sierra Leone

Here are some photos from the last trip to Sierra Leone where our extra clothing was delivered to the Forgotten Women Camps.

WGB is currently putting together another shipment.

Snack Packs

In June, 100 snack packs were donated to WGB and were assembled by chapter members of the Lambda Beta Omega Chapter, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., board members of The Education and Charitable, and our local community of volunteers.

Incredible work! Thank you!

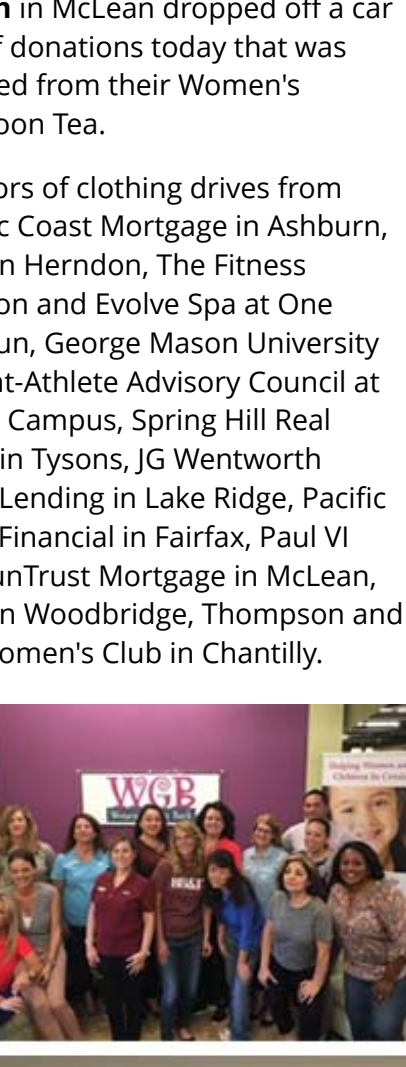

Stories from the Store

WGB has many success stories and Miki is certainly one of them! Miki and her newborn twins visited WGB in December, 2015. They fled a toxic D.C. environment, making their way to a Loudoun County homeless shelter.

Miki was linked to an INMED Partnerships for Children case manager who referred her to WGB. With a new wardrobe in hand, she landed a job as a Direct Support Professional to care for a gentleman with special needs. Miki found an apartment, received a minivan through Vehicle For Change and began a new life.

This AMAZING single mom has conquered homelessness and overcome addiction. She is living proof that women can face great odds and emerge as leaders. Miki was the guest speaker at InMed's Barn Blast fundraising event on June 4th. We applaud her; please do so as well!
