

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sterling, VA – March 28, 2025—Women Giving Back held a Wall-Breaking Ceremony on March 26, 2025, to kick off their exciting expansion, of their facility to 26,000 sq. ft. This growth will empower them to serve more women and children while creating a collaborative nonprofit hub that strengthens support for families in need within the community.

The ceremony featured distinguished guests, including local elected officials, to celebrate this pivotal moment and announce the campaign's fundraising achievements to date. Dave McOmber, Executive Vice President, Public Sector and Federal Sales from QTS Data Centers presented a $300,000 check to Women Giving Back and Loudoun Hunger Relief. Loudoun Hunger Relief will open a new food pantry, co-located with Women Giving Back. This generous gift showcases QTS's appreciation for Women Giving Back's unwavering dedication to women and children in crisis. QTS continues to invest in its community partnership with Loudoun Hunger Relief, united in the fight against food insecurity.

Nicole Morris, CEO of Women Giving Back shared, "This remarkable gift from QTS, along with the contributions we've received from the Clark Foundation and our devoted board, brings us closer to expanding our reach and deepening our impact on the lives of women and children," of Women Giving Back. "With this incredible support for the Opening Doors Campaign, we can address immediate needs and equip families with the skills and resources to build a stable and hopeful future."

Construction on the expanded facility will begin next week with an expected opening date later this year. For more information on the project and how to support the expansion efforts, please visit www.WomenGivingBack.org.

About Women Giving Back:

Women Giving Back (WGB) is a nonprofit organization that supports women and children in crisis by providing quality clothing at no cost. Founded in 2007, WGB operates a boutique-like store where clients can shop for clothing with dignity. Our mission is to empower women and children to achieve stability and self-sufficiency by addressing their immediate needs and offering a supportive community. Through the generosity of our donors and volunteers, we have served thousands of families, helping them regain confidence and hope for a brighter future. About Loudoun Hunger Relief:

Loudoun Hunger Relief (LHR), Loudoun's leader in food assistance, has been serving the Loudoun community since 1991. Last year, LHR served 14,000 Loudoun residents with about 2.1 million meals through roughly 177,000 service encounters. 36% of those served are children and 13% are senior citizens. LHR helps any person in Loudoun who needs food and distributed 2.5 million pounds of food last year.
